- ★ Placer United Has a New Home Placer United has taken a big step forward and moved into their much needed club office. After an intensive search in Roseville and surrounding areas, a suitable place was found. Located in Loomis at 3875 Taylor Rd., Suite B, next to Lorenzo's Mexican Restaurant, the office will serve a multitude of uses and provide much needed storage space and meeting areas. The location is just down the road from Del Oro High School, key to many Placer training sessions and soccer games. ...read more...
- ★ Placer U11 Boys are 2007 State Cup Champions - The U11 Boys team, coached by Gregg Thompson and assistant coach Andy Walsh, are State Cup Champs! They beat the Pleasanton Ballistic team by the score of 4-1. The Club is very proud of their accomplishment and extends them a big CONGRATULATIONS!!!!

We also would like to congratulate our U11G gold team coached by Katie Dempsey. The Prestige 96 girls team made it to the quarter finals but lost to Bay Oak 0-3. WE are very proud of both our U11 teams as these players are the future of Placer United. They have made us all very proud. GO PLACER!!!!

- ★ April 1, 2007 - The Best Learn from the Best! - If you have a daughter who wants to learn soccer from the best, you can't afford to miss this opportunity. Placer United Soccer Club The #1 ranked US Women's National team starting midfielder Leslie Osborne will be in Roseville to train ladies interested in escalating their game to the top level. This is a limited space, first come, first served opportunity, sponsored by Puma and Gatorade so don't delay. Leslie will instruct U14 and up girls on April 19 from 6-9 PM and U10-13 girls on April 20 6-9 PM. The cost is $60 for the session and this WILL SELL OUT FAST! Camps will be held at Oakmont High's all weather field, so there is no chance of a rain out. Don't miss out on a once in a lifetime opportunity.
